Inspiration

from the Jointly Maintained Reading Room in Portland, Oregon, USA

Late on a Saturday after we closed, I stayed to write some notes. I had a busy time with five visitors after 3 PM. All were positive.

- A family of three came in, asking about Christian Science. They practice a version of Judaism. The daughter looked through pamphlets. She picked out the one on healing and they bought it. We had a good conversation about healing and praying and loving God. They said they were glad they came in.
- A woman came in shortly after the others left. She had many difficult experiences with a variety of religions and was looking for something that was good and would help her get over the painful things she had gone through. I told her about Christian Science, and she accepted everything I said about it. I gave her some Sentinels, which she was eager to read. I told her she can come in any time for more Sentinels and to talk with people here.
- Then a high school boy walked in wanting to find out about Christian Science. He liked what he saw, and I gave him a couple of Sentinels.

All of this happened after the lights had been turned off, but no one seemed to realize that. These visitors were interested in hearing about Christian Science. I was so grateful I'd stayed late and left the door unlocked.

We want to hear from you! How have members of your church and Reading Room staff been praying in support of the healing activity of your Reading Room? Please send your submissions to: opendoors@cspc.com.
