Inspiration

from Second Church of Christ, Scientist, Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA

We wanted to share with you our February Reading Room advertising. With the help of one of our members who's very talented in the visual print area, we developed a plan for February based on "What is true _____?" (Love, Happiness, Companionship), to really address these questions in a spiritual, inspiring way. A second poster [that accompanies these] has QR codes that link to Sentinel or Journal articles.

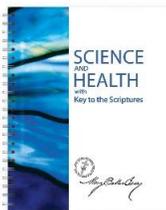

Our Reading Room is located in our church, and is on a busy street. It's winter now, but we still have plenty of pedestrians as well. We have large plate glass windows across the front of our church/Reading Room and we created a series of posters and a banner for a low cement wall (pictured) along with video monitors that can be seen from the sidewalk. We are thinking of this area as a walk of inspiration.

We also ran ads in our neighborhood papers (covering almost 100% of the city) vs. our city paper and will be tracking our website activity.

We want to hear from you! How have members of your church and Reading Room staff been praying in support of the healing activity of your Reading Room? Please send your submissions to: opendoors@csp.com.

To find more inspiration, please visit the inspirational articles section on the Reading Room Resources page of christianscience.com. The inspirational articles, which are a mix of current and older articles, are found about halfway down the page. They get refreshed monthly.

Resources to help share The Christian Science Monitor

The Christian Science Monitor has taken a step unique in the news industry by focusing on the values behind the news—values that connect us all, including hope, cooperation, and compassion. These provide readers a deeper view of the news and highlight the solutions that unite rather than divide.

This approach is reflected by founder Mary Baker Eddy’s description of the Monitor’s purpose: "To injure no man, but to bless all mankind."

You can explore the Monitor’s values journalism at CSMonitor.com/Values.

To help Reading Rooms share the Monitor, promotional materials are provided in the Reading Room Press Kit. ChristianScience.com/rrdropbox > English > Periodicals > Promotions > The Christian Science Monitor.

Let us know how your Reading Room is sharing the Monitor with your community by emailing us at opendoors@csps.com.
